Based upon the record herein including, without limitation, the supervised release hearing held on June 25, 2020 and the related submissions of Defense counsel, Benjamin Brafman and Andrea Zellan, dated March 17, 2020, June 10, 2020 and June 15, 2020; the Government submission from AUSA Jessica Greenwood, dated June 20, 2020; the submissions of the Probation Department (S.D.N.Y. Officer Noah Joseph and from C.D.C.A Officer Randy Orlow) dated June 18, 2020 and June 24, 2020; the letter from Dr. Kelly Woyewodzic, dated June 24, 2020; the letter from Sean McFarland, dated June 24, 2020; and the good progress made to date by Mr. Douglas; the following are the modified special conditions of supervised release along with the applicable effective dates:

1- Weekly drug testing will be changed to random drug testing effective August 1, 2020.

Random drug testing is required at least twice each month;

2- Weekly group therapy is required to continue, as in one of the groups offered by Sean McFarland. Any additional attendance at more than one group meeting is no longer mandatory (but is still encouraged), effective immediately. The result is that only one group session per week is required and it may be a group led by Sean McFarland or it may be an AA/NA group;

3- Weekly individual therapy (Dr. Woyewodzic) remains in place until September 1, 2020

when it may be reduced to twice per month;

4- 88 community service hours while at a Los Angeles and Probation Department qualified community service organization (which records hours) are to be completed by September 15, 2021, preferably at the rate of approximately 6-7 hours per month. (This is in addition to community service hours already completed.) Termination of further community service obligations may be considered in September 2021.

5- New York Probation to monitor progress working closely with Los Angeles Probation.

6- Travel to Spain with family for the month of July is authorized. Comply with all applicable coronavirus best practices.

All other terms and conditions of supervised release set forth in the Judgments dated April 20, 2010 and December 21, 2011 remain in effect, including the requirement that court approval is required before any further change in supervised release conditions.
